Where is the festival of Running of the Bulls?

The running of the bulls game is held in Pamplona, Spain. The running of the bulls is held during July 6 - 14 and they will have this game once a year.

The running of the bulls

Running of the Bulls is an activity where people run in front of bulls through the streets. It is done all around Spain, but the most famous one is in Pamplona. In most bull runs the bulls are not killed, and they live for a whole season. This is a dangerous activity but very exciting.

The origin of this event

When people transport the bulls from the fields outside the city to the bullring, young men want to show that they are not scared.

What do they wear for the running of the bulls?

This is what a bull sees.

For the Running of the Bulls it is tradition for the men to wear red clothes. It was believed that the color red would provoke the bulls and make them angry. But now we know that bulls are actually color blind and they only chase things that move.

Interesting facts

The Running of the Bulls, held in the small city of Pamplona, Spain, is one of the world's longest standing traditions. The festival, which may date back to the Middle Ages, has been celebrated annually since 1592.
