

G1 Bee Class Newsletter February and March 2025

Dear Parents,

Happy Chinese New Year and welcome back! I hope everybody enjoyed their holidays and got to spend time with their loved ones. Our curriculum will be similar to the first semester except for one exciting change; the kids will be making a slide show presentation by the end of this semester! This is very exciting as we can see the children's hard work from the beginning of the year comes to fruition.

Reading

During the reading periods, we will read 3 reading stories every 4 weeks. The kids will learn new vocabulary words and new grammar points by reading stories revolving around the same theme. In the months of February, the kids will be reading stories about sorting things and categorizing things. In March, they will be reading stories related to things we see in the sky.

February

Story 1: A Barn Full of Hats

Story 2: A Lost Button

Story 3: Sort it Out

Extra Reading Materials: Nuts for Winter, Dog Bones, Spark's Toys

March

Story 1: A Bird Named Fern

Story 2: Kitten's First Full Moon

Story 3: The Moon

Extra Reading Materials: Little Blue's Dream, Hide and Seek, The Foxes Build a Home

Presentation

After a semester of hard work, the kids should now be comfortable in creating a slide show presentation. Our teachers will continue to guide the kids, helping them create a presentation related to the central theme of their reading materials. The presentation topics for the month of February will be about recycling. And topic for the month of March will be planets.

Composition

As the kids become more familiar with writing, they will be honing their skills by taking what they have learned in the first semester and use the same knowledge to write about different topics.

2/03 – 2/14: Personal Narrative – A Day at the Zoo

2/17 – 2/27: Expository Writing – What I Like to do on the Weekends

3/03 – 3/14: Expository Writing – How I Help at Home

3/17 – 3/28: Story Writing – Visiting a Friend

Grammar

In the Grammar class, kids will do some practices that are not only grammar related, but also in phonics, spelling, and comprehension. If they finish their work early, they will do some interactive games on computer will also help kids learn grammar in a very natural way.

Dear Parents,

新年快樂！歡迎回來！希望大家度過了一個愉快的假期，並且有機會與親人共度美好時光。本學期的課程將與上學期類似，但有一個令人興奮的改變——孩子們將在本學期結束前製作一個投影片簡報！這將是一個非常激動人心的時刻，因為我們能夠見證孩子們從學期初開始努力學習的成果。

Reading

在閱讀課期間，每四週我們將閱讀三個故事。孩子們將透過閱讀圍繞相同主題的故事，學習新的詞彙和新的文法重點。在二月份，孩子們將閱讀關於物品分類和整理的故事。而在三月份，他們將閱讀與天空中事物相關的故事。

Presentation

經過一個學期的努力，孩子們現在應該能夠熟悉如何製作投影片簡報。我們的老師將持續指導孩子們，幫助他們創作與閱讀主題相關的簡報。二月份的簡報主題將是「回收」，而三月份的簡報主題將是「行星」。

Composition

隨著孩子們對寫作越來越熟悉，他們將運用第一學期學到的知識，並將這些技能應用到不同的寫作主題上，進一步提升自己的寫作能力。

Grammar

在文法課上，孩子們將進行一些練習，不僅包含文法，還涵蓋自然發音、拼寫和閱讀理解。如果他們提早完成作業，還可以在電腦上進行一些互動遊戲，這將幫助他們以自然的方式學習文法。
