

Monkey Class Newsletter April 2025

Hello Parents!

We're going to be pretty busy in April and heading into May as we have events, holidays and a field trip coming up. On April 1st we'll be celebrating Children's Day with a morning excursion to Wenxin park. In mid-April we'll take our Spring semester field trip to Green World Ecological farm. Then we'll begin to prepare for May's Drama play around the end of the month.

Reading

We'll have 3 new reading books in April, with the last week of the month starting to focus on learning lines for the drama play instead.

Week

1	Sir Pete the Brave
2	Max's Half Birthday
3	Lucky Goes to School
4	Prepare for Drama Play

In MPM we will be working with addition and combining groups of objects. This will transition into some work with sets and taking another look at overlapping groups and counting objects that belong in more than one group.

2	F3 13-18
3	Prepare for Drama Play
4	Prepare for Drama Play

Core Materials (Wonders)

Our Wonders work this month will look at Folk Tales and Fairy Tales. We'll look at two classic stories and talk about the lesson each is trying to teach.

2	Unit 3-3 92-97
3	Unit 3-3 100-103

Conclusion

April is going to be a very busy month, and that busy schedule is going to continue into May.

Alongside our regular bookwork we have events and field trips to look forward to. We're just about into the second half of the semester which means we will be looking ahead to graduation in just a few months. The time is going to fly by so we'll really have to keep our nose to the grindstone as we push through the last couple of months!
